

ICT Training

SLQ Wiki Fabrication Lab 2026/04/14 21:49

ICT Training

Be an eSafe Kid immerses young children into a bright, visual and interactive world of online safety where kids, aged between 5 and 9 years, can explore a range of topics such as 'I saw something online I didn't like' and 'someone is contacting me and I don't want them to'. It can also help you get the online safety conversation started in the classroom.

LinkedIn Learning contains thousands of training videos on using a wide range of technology and software and can be access for free using your RLQ or IKC membership

Telstra Tech Savvy Seniors has a range of short training videos for the Tech Savvy Seniors program ranging from Mobile Devices, Computers and Internet Security, Using Email and other Programs as well as other technology.

Be Connected is an Australia wide initiative empowering all Australians to thrive in a digital world. They have online learning resources as well as a Network of community partners.

Microsoft Digital Literacy - To keep up with the pace of changing technology Microsoft has updated their popular digital literacy course with more relevant content, improved accessibility and an enhanced learning experience.

eSafety Education - The Office of the eSafety Commissioner has a collection of Education Resources and Policies in the context of being safe online

Australian Seniors Computer Clubs Association (ASCCA) is the national peak body for seniors and technology, aiming to assist clubs to educate seniors in using computer technology to enrich their lives and make them more self-reliant

Go Digi - A partnership between Infoxchange and Australia Post to develop a national four year digital literacy program to improve the digital skills of Australians.

U3A Queensland is the largest provider of adult education programs for retirees within Queensland.

GCFLearnFree.org has helped millions around the world learn the essential skills they need to live and work in the 21st century. From Microsoft Office and email, to reading, math, and more.

DigitalLearn.org is a collection of self-directed tutorials for end-users to increase their digital literacy. Included are courses on the most basic skills with video-based with narration, 6 to 22 minutes long, written in plain language.