ICT Training

SLQ Wiki Fabrication Lab 2025/11/28 22:39

ICT Training

Be an eSafe Kid immerses young children into a bright, using a wide range of short training videos visual and interactive technology and world of online safety software and can be where kids, aged between 5 and 9 years, can explore a range of topics such as 'I saw something online I didn't like' and 'someone is contacting me and I don't want them to'. It can also help you get the online safety conversation started in the classroom.

LinkedIn Learning

training videos on access for free using your RLQ or IKC membership

Be Connected Every Australian online.

contains thousands of Telstra Tech Savvy Seniors has a range of Australia wide for the Tech Savvy Seniors program ranging from Mobile Devices, Computers Using Email and other Network of Programs as well as other technology.

Be Connected is an initiative empowering all Australians to thrive in a digital world. They have online learning and Internet Security, resources as well as a community partners.

Microsoft Digital Literacy - To keep up The Office of the with the pace of changing technology has a collection of their popular digital literacy course with more relevant content, improved accessibility and an enhanced learning experience.

eSafety Education and Policies in the context of being safe assist clubs to online

Australian Seniors Computer Clubs eSafety CommissionerAssociation (ASCCA) isInfoxchange and the national peak Microsoft has updated Education Resources body for seniors and technology, aiming to four year digital educate seniors in using computer technology to enrich their lives and make them more self-reliant

Go Digi - A partnership between Australia Post to develop a national literacy program to improve the digital skills of Australians.

SLQ Wiki 3/3 ICT Training

U3A Queensland is within Queensland.

adult education

GCFLearnFree.org has DigitalLearn.org, is a the largest provider of helped millions around the world programs for retirees learn the essential > century. From Microsoft Office and email, to reading, math, and more.

collection of selfdirected tutorials for end-users to increase skills they need to livetheir digital literacy. and work in the 21st Included are courses on the most basic skills with video-based > minutes long, written in plain language.

with narration, 6 to 22