Reflection

There were a number of people that signed up for this workshop, very few showed up on the day. They were mainly interested in the game mechanic side of things. After unpacking these for a long while we were all able to pull together some ideas around the board design and some icons that could be there to distinguish between large and small. We also worked on the size that the hexes could so as to fit on the board.

It came up during the session that it would be great to be able to share the game and what is happening from week to week for those that cannot attend in person. A Slack group has been set up where people who sign up to the sessions will be invited to join and contribute to and continue the dialogue.
