- Fun fact - Ernst Florens Friedrich Chladni (30 November 1756 – 3 April 1827) was a German physicist and musician. He is sometimes referred to as the father of acoustics.

- Interesting fact for a child/teenager – An Odd Name: They're named for the German physicist Ernest Chladni who popularized them in the mid-1700s. His name is pronounced: kläd'nêz.

- Interesting fact for an Adult – Instruments made of wood, string, and metal move in complex and nonlinear ways; that's partly why the sounds they make are so rich.

- Image – image of Ernst Chladni on one search
