HERE LIES THE ENTRY FOR A DESIGNED THING

Full Name:	Faith
Provide the link or name of the Imagined Thing from The Well you are responding to?:	@@Provide the link to the Imagined Thing from The Well you are responding to?@@
What is different about your idea from the original Imagined Thing?:	I added a cave for the dragon to stand on to show that his enemies are underneath and being defeated by him. I also added a nest with eggs and fire breath.
What is similar or inspired by the Imagined Thing:	The dragon is still half lion/half dragon, who protects you from evil and can breath fire.
Provide a brief update on your progress:	I made him with cardboard and hot glue and assembled him using a variety of cardboard sculpturing techniques.
What new thing did you learn as part of the process:	That there are a million different ways to interrupt something, and even though i choose just this one style, I know that there are so much more that could be done or shown.
