Getting Started in Family History
State Library of Queensland
Online collections and resources training

Program

Discover online family history resources available through your public library membership

Time	Program
9:15 - 9:30am	Registration, tea and coffee
9:30 – 9:40am	Welcome to *Getting Started in Family History Acknowledgement of country / Venue house keeping
9:40 – 9.55am	Introduction and aims of the training course
10:00 – 10:30am	Ancestry Library Edition • What is Ancestry Library Edition? • Key features and resources using Ancestry Library Edition • How to access Ancestry Library Edition using different entrance points to begin searching
10:30 - 10:50am	Morning tea
10.50 – 11:30am	Ancestry Library Edition (Part 2) • Browsing and searching using different search strategies • Things to be aware of when using Ancestry • Demonstration of the different ways to search • Time for participants to browse and familiarise themselves with Ancestry Library Edition.
11:30 – 12:00pm	An introduction to Trove digitised newspapers • What is Trove and why is it useful to researchers? • Demonstration of online newspaper sources using basic and advanced search • Explore tags, list and comments • Downloading and/or printing from Trove
12.00pm	Lunch